SEAT RESERVATION ELIGIBILITY

The AJ bylaws state that reserving a High Holy Day Seat is a privilege of membership. Seat reservations are available for members whose AJ accounts are current (having no statement balance older than 90 days). Complimentary seats are available for those receiving reciprocal seats, (see box to the right) those in the military, non-local college students, and non-members who have not previously received complimentary seats. Membership is required for all other seat reservations. Please contact Belinda Lasch at 458-5359 for all information on seat reservations and/or obtaining a membership at AJ.

RECIPROCAL SEAT POLICY FOR NON-LOCALS

AJ welcomes guests who are out-of-town family members of AJ congregants. As a courtesy, AJ will extend complimentary seats to these guests provided that they submit a letter from their home shul stating that High Holy Day seats are included in their membership support, or that the individuals have purchased High Holy Day seats this year. If seat reservations are not included in their membership support, or if the individuals have not purchased High Holy Day seat reservations this year at their home shul, payment for seat reservations must be submitted with the AJ Seat Reservation Form.

Out-of-town family members who receive reciprocal seats are assigned seats only for the services they will be attending. AJ will be assigning those seats to others when not in use by the reciprocal seat occupant.

DEADLINE AUGUST 3rd

Please return all forms with payment by the deadline.

HIGH HOLY DAY YOUTH PROGRAMS

We are thrilled that Rabbi Diane Tracht will lead High Holy Day youth services and programs at AJ this year. She has a particular dedication to pastoral care and to the possibility of healing through spiritually and psychologically-attuned presence. She is excited to spend the High Holy Days this year with our children!

Attention! PARENTS - We need your help!

Last year, our High Holy Day youth leader reported that his greatest challenge was competing against our children's cell phone use during youth services. Please have your student leave their cell phones at home this year. Out of respect for our High Holy Day youth leader, all children's cell phones will be collected at the Chapel door, prior to the start of youth services. The phones will be returned at the conclusion of services. Please help by informing your child of this policy. We appreciate your cooperation, so that all of our children will have the opportunity to have a meaningful High Holy Day experience this year.
